Recommended action: Approval at January 13, 2022 board meeting

Summary:

Minnesota Statute 118A.02 requires that annually a government entity shall designate a depository of its funds with one or more financial institutions. The Minnehaha Creek Watershed District names its official depository of funds at the first board meeting of the year. Since December 2019 the District's official depository has been Bremer Bank. Bremer Bank maintains the four District accounts:

- General Fund Checking Account
- General Fund Money Market Savings Account
- Surety Funds Checking Account
- Surety Fund Money Market Savings Account

Staff recommends that Bremer Bank continue as the depository of District Funds for 2022.
